Metro District Board names Jim Worley as Interim District Manager; welcomes letters of interest for vacant seat on Metro District Board.

(Castle Pines, CO, October 18, 2018) During its regularly scheduled October board meeting, the Castle Pines North Metro District Board of Directors named Jim Worley as its Interim District Manager.

“Mr. Worley brings a strong depth and diversity of water and wastewater utility experience, special district management expertise, and vital relationships with staff, neighboring jurisdictions, and community leaders throughout Douglas County and the metro area,” stated Board President David McEntire.

“As we search for a permanent district manager, we are genuinely pleased that Mr. Worley has agreed to return to Castle Pines and serve as the board’s interim partner in securing our renewable water future wisely,” echoed Director Norman Froman.

Residents may recall that Mr. Worley previously served as District Manager from 2010 through 2013, during the design and construction phases of the InterConnect Pipeline Project, a multi-million partnership between the Metro District and the Centennial Water & Sanitation District.

“It’s great to be back in Castle Pines,” said Jim Worley. “I am eager to assist the board, as directed, in helping bring their renewable water vision to reality.”

Qualified parties interested in pursuing the permanent district manager position with the Castle Pines North Metro District should submit a letter of interest and resume to District Administrator Janet Burnham at Janet@cpnmd.org no later than 12:00 noon, on Thursday, November 15, 2018.

Residents interested in pursuing an appointment to fill a new vacancy on the Castle Pines North Metro District Board of Directors should email a letter of interest and resume to District Administrator Janet Burnham at Janet@cpnmd.org. Please reference BOARD VACANCY APPLICATION in the subject line of the email. Directors intend to publicly discuss and establish the application-review and subsequent interview process for considering board-vacancy applicants during the regular board meeting scheduled to begin at 6:00 p.m., on Monday, November 19, 2018.
